

WASHINGTON.

SPEAKER CARLISLE STILL WORRIED OVER THE COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS.

Further Time Requested by the Speaker—Recent Nominations Sent to the Senate—A Prominent Lawyer's Sudden Death—Senator Voorhees Replies to Sherman's Attack on the President—Proceedings in Congress.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, D. C., January 4.—Contrary to the general expectation Speaker Carlisle did not announce his committee appointments on the reconvening of the House this morning. At the last moment new complications have arisen and Mr. Carlisle was forced to postpone their announcement.

Sudden Death of Lawyer Moore.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, D. C., January 4.—Charles S. Moore, a well-known attorney of this city, who was a prominent candidate for the office of District Attorney, made vacant by the expiration of the term of A. S. Worthington, suddenly dropped dead at his residence at 1000 Broadway at midnight. Mr. Moore and a party of friends had just partaken of a hearty lunch and were engaged in conversation. Mr. Moore fell. It was supposed that his foot had slipped, but when an effort was made to raise him he was found to be extinct. His death resulted from cerebral apoplexy.

Recent Nominations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 4.—The President has sent to the Senate the following recent nominations:

Benton J. Hall of Iowa, to be Commissioner of Patents.

To be Interstate Commerce Commissioners—Thomas Conley of Michigan, Wm. Morris of Illinois, Augustus Schenckman of New York, Adolphe J. Walker of Vermont and Walter L. Bragg of Alabama.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

The Senate. WASHINGTON, D. C., January 4.—Among the papers presented in the Senate today was a petition handed in by Mr. Hale, protesting against any change in the tariff laws in favor of the rights of American fishermen under existing treaties and legislation.

Mr. Carlisle presented a petition in favor of the present tariff on lumber. The petition of the Illinois State Grange indorsing the interstate law, favoring Government ownership of telegraph lines, denouncing gambling in "futures," favoring the restriction of immigration as proposed in the Reagan bill, opposing the abolition of the whiskey excise tax and favoring the placing of salt, lumber, sugar, etc., on the tariff.

Among the bills introduced and referred were the following:

By Mr. Blair. To encourage the holding of a national industrial exposition of arts, mechanics and productions of the colored race throughout the United States, to be held in 1888 and 1889.

Mr. Brown offered a resolution declaring that the practice of the Government was correct for the first three quarters of the century.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

Mr. Blair requested that the educational bill be laid aside until Mr. Voorhees had replied to Mr. Sherman's speech. Mr. Voorhees then made a speech in defense of the President's message. Mr. Voorhees denounced the statements of Mr. Carlisle and other Republicans in criticism of the President's message.

THE CHINESE LEGATION.

DIGNITARIES WHO REPRESENT THE CELESTIAL EMPIRE IN WASHINGTON.

The Chinese Minister and His Handsome Residence—Chang Yen Hoon's Standing in the Home Country—Scholarship in China—Liang Shung's Position—A Chinese Doctor—Social and Dress Celebrities.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 29.—No country of the world is more talked of among the people of the United States today than China. The project for the starting of an American-Chinese Bank, the questions of Chinese immigration and the fight over the Chinese Legation in Peking have turned the eyes of the American people toward the Celestial Empire.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

THE CHINESE LEGATION.

DIGNITARIES WHO REPRESENT THE CELESTIAL EMPIRE IN WASHINGTON.

The Chinese Minister and His Handsome Residence—Chang Yen Hoon's Standing in the Home Country—Scholarship in China—Liang Shung's Position—A Chinese Doctor—Social and Dress Celebrities.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch. WASHINGTON, D. C., December 29.—No country of the world is more talked of among the people of the United States today than China. The project for the starting of an American-Chinese Bank, the questions of Chinese immigration and the fight over the Chinese Legation in Peking have turned the eyes of the American people toward the Celestial Empire.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

By Mr. Thompson of California. For the protection of Chinese lands belonging to the United States in California.

By Mr. Vandever of California. Directing that the Chinese Legation in Peking be reported a measure to afford better postal facilities to the people of California.

By Mr. Rogers of Arkansas. To regulate the jurisdiction of United States Courts; also to secure cheaper telegraphic correspondence; also to regulate freight and passenger rates on the Pacific coast; also to regulate the duty on imports from the United States District Courts.

By Mr. Felton of California. To prohibit the immigration of Chinese; also, to refund to the Chinese the duty on opium, prunes and raisins; also to extend the United States jurisdiction over the Chinese.

CASUALTIES.

A Bad Wreck—Destructive Saltpetre Explosion—Fatal Injuries.

DELOIT, Wis., January 4.—A bad freight wreck occurred here yesterday on the Chicago & Northwestern Road. The train was regular and extra, both going north. Owing to the blocking of the railroad yards, the regular was obliged to remain on the main track, and the extra was forced to back up. The extra was a few minutes behind the regular, and was unable to reverse the engine on account of the cold, and came tearing down the grade. The engine of the extra was badly wrecked, and the caboose of the regular smashed into splinters. Several other cars were wrecked, and freight was scattered along the road for many rods. The engineer and fireman leaped from the extra and saved themselves.

A Saltpetre Explosion. CHICAGO, Ill., January 4.—At 6 o'clock this morning a fire-engine was called to the corner of Canal Street and Halsted Street to extinguish a blaze in a general provision store. Across the way was a meatshop owned by Mr. Delaney, who made a business of storing meat for other people. In this business he was in the habit of using large supplies of saltpetre. As the firemen were getting the fire under control the saltpetre exploded, destroying the shop and the meatshop. The explosion was so violent that it was severely injured about the head and a druggist named Franklin was also severely injured. The loss caused by the explosion was $1,000. Mr. Delaney's business was ruined by falling on a pile of bricks and Mr. Franklin was injured by falling on a pile of meat.

A Passenger Collision. GALESTOWN, Tex., January 4.—The north-bound passenger train on the Missouri Pacific Road, which left Galveston at 8:30 this morning, collided at about 9 o'clock, when near Houston, with a section of the St. Louis & Southwestern Express. Both locomotives were badly wrecked. No passengers were killed or injured. Engineer Ward of the north-bound train and mail agent Smith of the St. Louis & Southwestern were the only ones reported injured, neither of whom was seriously hurt. Reports sent out from Houston on the first receipt of news of the accident, stating that a large number of passengers were killed are entirely without foundation.

A Bad Miss. By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. CORNING, Ark., January 4.—Yesterday D. W. Vickery of Corning, S. Watson of Moark, and two partners from St. Louis, killed four deer. D. W. Vickery shot at the first deer, and missed. The second deer, striking his friend Watson and fracturing his leg. It is thought he will recover.

Fatal Injuries. By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. MARSHALL, Mo., January 4.—John M. Riggs, a farmer, near Herndon, this county, was thrown from a load of hay yesterday by a runaway team, receiving injuries from which he died this morning.

The Aristocratic Lawyer Family. Washington correspondent of the Boston Traveler. Congressman Frank Lawler of Chicago is a man of the people. He has no particular love for those who lean back on their dignity and brag about the prominence of their ancestors. Mr. Lawler has climbed up to a position in the law by his own efforts and his own industry. He has been a laborer, a letter-carrier, a keeper of an industrial gin-mill, a ward politician, a successful businessman, a Congressman, and now a Senator. He is one of the best of men, and his life is a lesson to all who are ready to do a kind act for a friend.

A Christmas Tree Disappointment. From Life. "What troubles my little man?" Boy: "I thought you were going to bring me a new toy, but you brought me a new hat." "And when I got it off the tree it was nothing but a real black hat with horns on it."

An Offer Worth Considering. From Judge. "Don't yer want ter buy a Saint Bernard pup, mum?" Yer can't get lost in the snow, mum, yer have him with yer."

Found It Too Hot. WASHINGTON, Pa., January 4.—The citizens of Zionsville and vicinity are considerably exercised over a discovery on the farm of Simon Bond. Smoke was noticed several days ago issuing from the ground, and in order to ascertain its origin a number of neighbors assembled in making excavations. They were not far from the ground became so hot that the men had to quit digging. It is stated that the hole was about four feet deep, and that the smoke has become very dense.

Fatal Pneumonia. By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. VINCENNES, Ind., January 4.—Joel B. King, an old citizen and proprietor of King's Hotel, this city, died this morning of pneumonia.

A Little English Orthodoxy. Abergavenny is pronounced Abergavenny. Bellingbrook is pronounced Bellingbrook. Brougham is pronounced Brougham. Chumley is pronounced Chumley. Cockburn is pronounced Cockburn. Colquhoun is pronounced Colquhoun. Cooper is pronounced Cooper. Crook is pronounced Crook. Grover is pronounced Grover. Harward is pronounced Harward. Holliba is pronounced Holliba. Knowles is pronounced Knowles. Marybone is pronounced Marybone. Norvich is pronounced Norvich. Ogle is pronounced Ogle. Sillinger is pronounced Sillinger. Thames is pronounced Thames. Venger is pronounced Venger. Zionsville is pronounced Zionsville.

Great CLEARING Sale.

Our Entire Winter Stock gone over and Prices Cut to Mere Nominal Figures.

WONDERFUL BARGAINS

& CLOTHES.

OFFERED IN THIS SALE THIS WEEK AT

READ.

At 10c. 40 pieces double-width Cashmere Binges, in solid colors and grey, regular price 10c; reduced to 10c.

At 17 1-2c. 67 pieces ALL-WOOL Flannel Shirts, in solid colors and grey, regular price 17c; reduced to 17c.

At 5c. 200 pairs handsomely 38-inch wide old-time dress shirts, regular price 10c; reduced to 5c.

At 5c. 200 pairs excellent style Dress Shirts, Clearing Sale price 10c; regular price 12c.

At 10c. 35 pairs black Cashmere Socks, Clearing Sale price 10c; regular price 25c.

At $2.95 up. 200 Ladies' Suits in Cashmere, Combinations and Wool, $2.95 to $10.00, including intermediate prices.

At 35c. 100 Ladies' Best Coat Wrappers, lined, $35c; reduced from $1.25.

At 35c. 27 pairs Hands and All-Wool Jerseys, 35c; every item reduced in this Department.

OUR PRICES CANNOT BE DUPLICATED.

PENNY & GENTLES,

SOUTHWEST CORNER BROADWAY AND FRANKLIN AV.

AMONG THE BROKERS.

Gas Trust Dividend—Granite Mountain Report—Mining Gossip.

Private advices from the West indicate that John D. Rockefeller's report on the Sheridan is favorable to the mine.

A report from San Francisco received to-day states that the shaft was down 235 feet. It is to be continued down to 350 feet.

Secretary Tansill of the Yavapai returned this morning from Chicago.

Ed Stettinius will have charge of the outside work of the Little Broom Company hereafter.

A letter from the El-Metall received to-day stated that the shaft was down 235 feet. It is to be continued down to 350 feet.

Some of the old Little stockholders are trying to organize a movement to commence suit against the company, claiming that the company is not doing its duty.

John B. Farish, the expert, will leave Denver for St. Louis the latter part of this week.

Work is being actively prosecuted upon the Express Group, above Ashcroft, near Aspen, Colo. Some three or four miles from the town, the Express Group is being worked.

Work on the Rose mine on Pikes Peak Hill has been suspended temporarily and all but two or three of the force laid off, pending the outcome of the litigation.

A meeting of the Trustees of the Gas Trust has been called for Friday afternoon to discuss the proposed plan for the gas trust.

Superintendent Plummer of the Granite Mount, under date of December 24, reports the following work done: Tunnel No. 6—Total length, 2,977 feet, are passing through quartz and are now in the process of being driven.

Work on the Rose mine on Pikes Peak Hill has been suspended temporarily and all but two or three of the force laid off, pending the outcome of the litigation.

A meeting of the Trustees of the Gas Trust has been called for Friday afternoon to discuss the proposed plan for the gas trust.

Superintendent Plummer of the Granite Mount, under date of December 24, reports the following work done: Tunnel No. 6—Total length, 2,977 feet, are passing through quartz and are now in the process of being driven.

Work on the Rose mine on Pikes Peak Hill has been suspended temporarily and all but two or three of the force laid off, pending the outcome of the litigation.

A meeting of the Trustees of the Gas Trust has been called for Friday afternoon to discuss the proposed plan for the gas trust.

Superintendent Plummer of the Granite Mount, under date of December 24, reports the following work done: Tunnel No. 6—Total length, 2,977 feet, are passing through quartz and are now in the process of being driven.

Work on the Rose mine on Pikes Peak Hill has been suspended temporarily and all but two or three of the force laid off, pending the outcome of the litigation.

A meeting of the Trustees of the Gas Trust has been called for Friday afternoon to discuss the proposed plan for the gas trust.

Superintendent Plummer of the Granite Mount, under date of December 24, reports the following work done: Tunnel No. 6—Total length, 2,977 feet, are passing through quartz and are now in the process of being driven.

Work on the Rose mine on Pikes Peak Hill has been suspended temporarily and all but two or three of the force laid off, pending the outcome of the litigation.

A meeting of the Trustees of the Gas Trust has been called for Friday afternoon to discuss the proposed plan for the gas trust.

Superintendent Plummer of the Granite Mount, under date of December 24, reports the following work done: Tunnel No. 6—Total length, 2,977 feet, are passing through quartz and are now in the process of being driven.

Work on the Rose mine on Pikes Peak Hill has been suspended temporarily and all but two or three of the force laid off, pending the outcome of the litigation.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Intending purchasers of Pond's Extract cannot take too much precaution to prevent substitution.

Some druggists, trading on the popularity of the great Family Remedy, attempt to palm off other preparations, unscrupulously asserting them to be "the same as" or "equal to" Pond's Extract. Indifferent to the deceit practiced upon and disappointment thereby caused to the purchaser, so long as larger profits accrue to themselves. Always insist on having Pond's Extract. Take no other.

SOLD IN BOTTLES ONLY; NEVER BY MEASURE. Quality uniform.

Prepared only by POND'S EXTRACT CO., New York and London.

See our name on every wrapper and label. Note picture of bottle below.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

THE POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

PUBLISHED BY THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH FULTNER, President.

(Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis, Mo., second-class mail matter.)

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year, postage paid, every afternoon and Sunday morning.....$10.00
Six months.....5.00
Three months.....2.50
By the week (delivered by carrier).....30
Sunday Edition, by mail, per year.....2.00
Subscribers who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

THE WEEKLY.
One year, postage paid.....$1.00
Six months, postage paid......60
All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed.

POST-DISPATCH,
515 and 517 Market street.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.
Editorial Rooms.....501
Business Office.....508

London Office, 22 Colindale Avenue, Charing Cross.

HIGH-WATER MARK, 54,420.

The circulation of the DAILY POST-DISPATCH in the City of St. Louis is larger every week than that of any other newspaper in the City.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1888.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

OLYMPIC—"Legends."
GRAND—Howard Atherton Specialty Company.
PROFESSOR—"Hearts of Oak."
FURY—"Lost in New York."
REAR—The "Night Owls."
CANDID—Novelty Company.

MATINEES TO-MORROW.
CANDID—Novelty Company.

The indications for twenty-four hours commencing at 3 p.m. to-day for Missouri are: Colder, fair weather; fresh to brisk winds, becoming north-easterly.

Is it not getting time for the United States Senate to bounce LELAND STANFORD?

The School Board should not draw the line on German; they should draw it on drawing.

The new year's first legacy from the old year is a fifteen-million-dollar addition to the superfluous surplus.

It would not be extravagant restitution if Senator STANFORD should give his big university to the United States.

The Sherman boom continues to shrink, and may soon become invisible, except to SHERMAN and his trusted advisers.

The reports of the Pacific Railroad Investigating Committee are attacks on the pet protected industries of Republican rule.

If the Democrats can persuade FORAKER to canvass New York next year for the Republican ticket they will not need ST. JOHN.

It seems evident that the preacher who steps into BRECHER's shoes will have to put on several pairs of socks in order to get a fit.

The Republicans should pick a candidate with some view to his ability to write a respectable history after the November land-slide.

It is believed that when Gen. MAHON starts his reduction mill he will either bow the whole establishment or smash the machinery.

Would the editor of the Commercial Gazette urge LAMAR's confirmation if he had simply urged the assassination of President LINCOLN?

SENATOR STANFORD announces himself an uncompromising protectionist, but he shows no desire to assist in protecting the United States Government.

The light furnished by the pooled gas companies is poor, but it is stronger than the light furnished by the municipal Gas-Trust Investigation Committee.

Those editors have undertaken a big job who want to elect Mr. BLAINE and defeat Mr. BLAINE's platform. It will be the people's plan to defeat both.

The Democratic Administration continues to grow in popular favor as a result of the untimely abuse directed against it by protectionist editors and bloody-shirt partisans.

NOW that the sluggers are advertising themselves as givers and receivers of thousand-dollar diamonds it is hoped that popular actresses will abandon this mercenary device of puffery.

The Globe-Democrat wants the Democratic Convention to go to New York, but the convention will doubtless come here, all the same, in order to fire the heart of the G.-D.'s editor with a good old Democratic yell.

The American Association for the Advancement of Science has petitioned to Congress to take steps for the preservation of the great natural curiosities of this country. One of the great natural curiosities of this country is the bloody-shirt editor, but the country does not desire that he should be preserved. He must go.

There is pathos in the statement of a gentle editor that he and his neighbors are getting tired trying to make a 16-cent mustard plaster take the place of an all-wood undershirt. Even this desperate resort may have to be abandoned, for if the mustard plaster comes into general use as an article of underwear the extreme protectionists will never rest satisfied till they get a war tariff put on mustard.

WORK FOR THE LABOR BUREAU.

When Labor-Commissioner WRIGHT gives us, as the result of a year's work of his Bureau, a report showing that the labor strikes and lockouts of the last six years have caused a loss of wages amounting to $60,000,000, and have inflicted a loss of $84,000,000 on employers, we can feel that we have approximately accurate figures on the subject. But will they make anybody wiser? The strikers did not need this computation of the aggregate cost to teach them that they and their families and friends had suffered more than their employers. They felt the individual loss in the most poignant way—in scant rations—in eating the bitter bread of charity—in the cold and hunger of their helpless families. But there is one point on which Labor-Commissioner WRIGHT can furnish very important information, of which the great majority of people, rich and poor, do not possess even a vague idea. Let him go to work with his bureau force and figure out how much the labor of this country has lost through the blood-sucking operations of the trusts and watered-stock monopolies that have been permitted to levy unjust taxation, not for public use, but for private gain, upon the entire labor and production of these United States. A little of this sort of work from the Labor Bureau would be far more instructive and fruitful than all the new light which figures can throw on the old and sad story of losses by strikes.

ABOUT THE WEATHER.

When Lowell asked
What is so rare as a day in June?
he probably did not think of such a thing as a June day in January, and yet St. Louis is favored with weather which, if not quite warm enough for June, is nearer to midsummer than to midwinter, and suggests buds and flowers as this week's substitute for last week's skating and blizzards. Instead of Wintering in the lap of spring, the spring in St. Louis rushes impetuously forward to embarrass the frosty and forbidding face of winter with her unexpected kisses, and it would be no surprise if some suburban residents should to-morrow report the bluebird and the robin as already here.

This is a great country, and St. Louis, as the central city of the Continent, is obliged to represent the whole country in its climate as well as in its culture. We are prepared to furnish samples of all kinds of climates, to guarantee that every one can find his own favorite climate here in St. Louis, and instead of going abroad for a change of climate, all that we have to do is to stay at home and let the change come to us. At the same time our samples of weather seldom remain long enough with us to grow monotonous, and if any one objects to this sudden eruption of premature summer we have no hesitation in saying that in a few days his objections will be removed and he may feel quite sure of getting weather to suit him.

The dropping of German is a good beginning, but only a beginning of the expurgation needed in the common school course of study. A piddling, paltering, partial reform will be barren of tangible results. What is needed above all things is a general clearing away of everything that interferes with or retards the progress of the junior classes in the important and essential rudiments of a plain English education. Keeping in mind the early age at which the great majority of children must leave school, and the little time they can devote even to the most essential studies, the work of the lower grades should be rigidly adapted to their necessities. It will thus benefit them and all alike in whatever trade or calling they may follow. Their future vocations must be so various that no special training for special vocations can be provided in these lower grades. All further benefit from the schools must be reserved for those who can stay long enough to receive it, and it should be so placed in the course as not to interfere with the general good of those primary classes, which contain so large a majority of the total enrollment, and beyond which there is no schooling for the great majority of the people's children.

"Move On, Pulitzer, Move On!"

Never, during all of Mr. Dana's persistent warfare upon the circulation of the Sun, has he made use of a more boomerang-like sentence than his "Move On, Pulitzer, move on. We are sorry you came." It called the attention of the public more forcibly than ever to the fact that ever since Mr. Pulitzer took hold of the Sun there have been right-minded New Yorkers who can sympathize with Mr. Dana in his natural and acute sorrow. Aside from the fact that Mr. Pulitzer is the proprietor of a great newspaper which they may admire, or dislike, according to their individual tastes and political and literary affiliations, wide-awake New Yorkers recognize him as a man whose public spirit and princely generosity deserves more than passing gratitude and notice. The newspapers who heeded Thanksgiving day did not join Mr. Dana in his cry "We are sorry you came." The street walks who received Christmas morning, in all probability, the best really comfortable clothes they had ever put on, are not sorry he came. The unfortunate but heart-thricken newspaper men who have occupied the Pulitzer bed in the Roosevelt Hospital have looked in vain for some similar record of generosity on the part of other employers. They have not been grievously overpaid, but the poor children to whom he has given theater parties, the working girls who went on the World summer excursions and the boys who made use of the World's playground, could none of them echo Mr. Dana's sentiments and exclaim, "We are sorry you came."

But it would be useless to recount a list of Mr. Pulitzer's charities. They have been constant, and have certainly borne the impress of a generous heart. In another part of this paper are accounts of a theater party given to poor school children on Christmas Eve, and Mrs. Pulitzer's gracious Christmas gift to some hundreds of street waifs. Had this been done by Mr. George W. Childs in Philadelphia the other papers would have been full of it the next day; but here in New York the spirit of jealousy is so strong that rivals of the World are afraid to mention Mr. Pulitzer's generosity. It certainly looks as if the newspaper business had reached a pretty low ebb when papers refuse to print the names of the benefactors who do the credit of the proprietor of another paper. Possibly the envy of the proprietors was tinged with a little shame that they themselves did not possess the spirit to go and do likewise. It is to be hoped that this is so. It may induce some of the editors to extend to the credit of Mr. Dana anything but gratification to see that Mr. Pulitzer moves on. He moves on in building up to even greater strength a great paper; he moves on in charity, he moves on in doing rapidly recognized as the George W. Childs of New York journalism, almost the only newspaper proprietor who pauses long enough from clutching at the almighty dollar to be of some use to the community in which he lives, and nobody but the readers of his paper has brought to justice, and the narrow-minded and envious business rivals, whose slow-going and selfish methods he has outstripped, are sorry that he came.

Mr. Blaine's "Free Chaw." Geo. M. Stearns to the Boston Tariff Reformers. Fuel and warmth and food and clothing and comfort and health are the real necessities, and things with which we should minister to the people's best interests, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little thin dress, longing for a shawl to wrap around her to protect her freezing form, compelled to console herself with the knowledge that her husband is smoking an untaxed cigar in the parlor, and we must be a necessity of life. Look at that boy up there in the attic this cold night shivering in his rags, and wishing that blankets were not such a luxury, but contenting himself with the thought that his father is chewing untaxed tobacco in the kitchen! (Great laughter and applause.) Think of that wife with her little

SARA AND "LA TOSCA."

DOING SOI DENIES THAT SARDOU STOLE BARRYMORE'S PLOT.

The idea of "La Tosca" not taken from "Barrymore's Plot" is a story which has been doing the rounds of the theatrical world since the production of the play at the Grand Opera House.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch. PARIS, January 4.—I called on Sara Bernhardt last night at the Hotel de la Paix. She was in her dressing room, and I found her sitting on a stool with her back to a bright fire, looking at a picture of a young man in a military uniform.

"So you speak French?" she said in English. "Yes," I replied. "I will tell you what it is all about." I extracted a copy of a New York evening paper of the previous Wednesday from my pocket and pointed to a passage in the article which mentioned the name of Sara Bernhardt.

"Here, read this," she said, pointing to the article. "It is not true that he gave me 'La Tosca' to read. He showed it to me. Oh, so he is going to make things unpleasant for me? Tenez, tenez, that is very formidable. Well, then, I suppose he must make things unpleasant for me."

"O'est gentil," continued Mrs. Bernhardt, "but I should like to know if there is any similarity. I supposed, of course, that the resemblance could not be helped; on point de ressemblance, but how silly is the accusation. 'La Tosca' has been played now three years, and we have only begun 'La Tosca.' It is likely that Sardou would be jealous of his reputation by playing a rising, a scene or an act from a play that is on the stage? And, tenez, this gentleman might just as well accuse him of stealing his plots as Sardou. Yes, Sardou knows about this affair, and he says, as I do, that it is ridiculous. Write to the Society of Frenchmen of Letters, will he? Well, let him write."

SARA BERNHARDT. But was very quiet, though there was a very cutting sarcasm in her voice. She got up and went to her toilet table and while looking at herself in the mirror she said to me: "I declare, I never saw Mr. Barrymore. Why, he accuses me of theft. We are thieves, then, I suppose you have seen 'La Tosca'?" Well, have you seen 'La Tosca'?" You can tell me, then, if there is any resemblance between the two. When one sees 'La Tosca' one only sees Mrs. Sara Bernhardt. It is difficult to compare. "The call boy here poked his head in and cried, 'Madame, they are waiting.'"

Sara had not quite finished her toilette. She took her case. I could not help looking at the reflection of her face in the mirror seen from where I stood over the low bamboo screen that hides the mysteries of the dressing-table. I noticed that he eyes of all present followed her, as if fascinated, even those of her friends. Meanwhile he, who was standing by the fire, was busy in opening and reading a pile of letters that lay on the mantelpiece. Some she laid aside; others were thrown into the fire. One of the gentlemen present exclaimed: "He is astonishing, this Barrymore."

"Ah, there, enough," cried Sara impatiently. "That is enough, Barrymore; Barrymore is more than enough (this is English) for tonight. I am not going to be troubled with it any more."

"Bien, and little Maurice?" "Oh, he is as happy as a king."

"Madame," repeated the call boy. "O'est bien. Yes, as happy as a President of the Republic, and Torka, too. They seem to delight each other, and that is very well. Maurice is quite changed now. He used to be melancholy. Torka has altered all that. I do not know who of us three is the happiest, Maurice, Torka or I."

I availed myself of the opportunity to ask her opinion of "La Tosca," not as a lesson but as an artist.

"It is magnificent," she said. "I like the role as well as any I have ever played in. Sardou played it well. What nonsense! We will make a splendid run of it."

"Madame," repeated the call boy again in distress. "Well," I said as I withdrew, "I may say all this."

"Yes, ditte lui de ma part que c'est un bon." "Is New Year's Day, Madame. Shall I add any greetings to the Americans? A wish of good luck for the new year?"

"Oh, oui, oui," she said, with an emphatic wave of her graceful arm, as though sending a message of love far away. "Good luck to Americans, very good luck to Americans."

She was not acting when she spoke those last words, for she has much love for and gratitude to America.

Amusement Notes. "The Night Owl" are giving a lively entertainment at the Grand Opera House.

The pathetic interest of "Hearts of Oak" holds the attention of the audiences at the People's Theatre.

Little Flossie Edwards is a remarkably clever dancer and has made a hit with the Grand Opera House company.

BEFORE JUDGE CODY.

Terrible Case of Depravity in a Child—Other Law Breakers Punished.

The trial of Elizabeth Caldwell on a charge of keeping a disreputable house came to its conclusion in Judge Cody's court and revealed a big fat negro who was arrested at No. 515 Market street last night for harboring a young white girl in her disreputable dive. A charge of keeping a disreputable house was preferred against the woman and the girl, who had the name of Ann, and the case was held on a charge of being an inmate of a disreputable house.

A more miserable looking object than the girl it would be hard to imagine. She scarcely looked 15 years old, and was a sickly pale on her face, her hair was matted and unkempt, her clothing was in rags, and soap and water appeared to be unknown to her. Caldwell rented her room on the second floor of No. 515 Market street, and Mrs. Caldwell, who occupies apartments in the same house, were the principal witnesses in the case.

Henry Jackson, the cat burner, was up on a charge of cruelty to animals. Jackson is a negro, 40 years of age, and lives in the rear of No. 1150 South Second street. Occupying a small house in the same house is Noah Anderson, another negro, and he has a cat, or at least had one, until last evening. In an effort to get rid of the animal, he had a child, which died when he was 10 years old.

Henry Klein, a professional wife-beater, was tried on a charge of beating his wife, Sarah, on South Third street, being only suffered to exist in the house, and he was found guilty. The husband had clearly shown indignities to his wife, and he was found guilty of beating her.

A stranger case still was that of a German couple in the South. The wife, a woman well advanced in years, who desired a divorce from her husband, who was a German, and he was found guilty of beating her.

OUR SACRIFICE REMOVAL ART SALE. Commences To-Day. Silk umbrellas, cut glass, bisque figures, parian marbles, brass tables.

MEMPHIS & JACARD JEWELRY CO., Corner Fourth and Locust.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES. Parnell returned to Ireland yesterday and went to Cork.

Gen. Isaac R. Trimble of Baltimore died there last night of pneumonia.

George A. Smith, a Cincinnati millionaire, died yesterday at the age of 60 years.

Proctor, the first resident of Dakota, 58 years of age, was found frozen to death near Fort Bennett.

In the Tolpeltown murder case at Minneapolis, Minn., yesterday, Timothy Barrett was convicted of murder in the first degree.

The President has issued a proclamation warning the State of Texas not to sell any of the land in the State.

The London Telegraph claims that because the farmers kicked against allowing mules to hunt over their farms the County of Meath, Ireland, was proclaimed.

Alexander Denson, colored, formerly of Shelby, Mo., was arrested at Wichita, Kan., yesterday, for the murder of a colored laborer at Galesburg, Ill., last August.

Charles C. Snyder and Pat O'Brien, prominent politicians, quarreled at Chattanooga, Tenn., and Snyder inserted a big knife in the back of O'Brien's head.

George O. Miller of Stark, Fla., was shot from ambush and killed Monday night. The assassin was a man named John Smith.

THE GOSSIPS' CORNER.

DIVORCES THAT LOOK VERY MUCH LIKE CASES OF COLLUSION.

The Arizona Mummy in Which Col. James Edwards' Intense Desire for a Divorce Methods of Duelling That Astonished Barren—A Strange Experience in the Snow—Odd Bits of Information.

MAT is collusion in divorce. Persons who are familiar with the legal machinery for securing a divorce know that the petitioner must make an oath to the effect that the application is made in good faith; that the applicant is the aggrieved and innocent party to the proceeding, and that it is a case of collusion. A strike instance was afforded but a few days since. One of the most scrupulous interpreters of the statutes had before him for solution a domestic problem that would have puzzled Solomon himself.

A young and handsome man, who occupied a good social position, appeared in the role of plaintiff with two attorneys to present his claims for a divorce. He took the witness stand, and after the reading of the petition was closely interrogated by the judge. From his testimony it appeared that he had married a woman who had tasted of the sweets of matrimony before and had acquired some little property. When she met the petitioner and a respectable family resort. They were married, and for some years resided at a family boarding-house. To all outward appearances the path of the couple was well strewn with roses, and it was no small shock to the nerves of the most intimate friends to hear that a divorce had been filed for the same.

He had stated in his petition that his condition had been rendered intolerable later by his wife's cold, contemptuous treatment; that she had refused to speak to him for days together, while at other times she had been so kind and loving that he had been almost ashamed to be so kind. He had stated that he had been living under the same roof and still occupying the same quarters they had not shared the same apartments, and that he had been living in the same house as the husband for a long time past, and that it was an indignity to him to be so treated. The judge inquired whether the husband had entered into any arrangement with the wife for the purpose of securing a divorce, and at that stage the attorney who had filed the petition asked to be sworn. He did so, and the wife was found guilty of beating her husband.

A man named John, who was a German, was found guilty of beating his wife, Sarah, on South Third street, being only suffered to exist in the house, and he was found guilty.

A stranger case still was that of a German couple in the South. The wife, a woman well advanced in years, who desired a divorce from her husband, who was a German, and he was found guilty of beating her.

OUR SACRIFICE REMOVAL ART SALE. Commences To-Day. Silk umbrellas, cut glass, bisque figures, parian marbles, brass tables.

MEMPHIS & JACARD JEWELRY CO., Corner Fourth and Locust.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES. Parnell returned to Ireland yesterday and went to Cork.

Gen. Isaac R. Trimble of Baltimore died there last night of pneumonia.

George A. Smith, a Cincinnati millionaire, died yesterday at the age of 60 years.

Proctor, the first resident of Dakota, 58 years of age, was found frozen to death near Fort Bennett.

In the Tolpeltown murder case at Minneapolis, Minn., yesterday, Timothy Barrett was convicted of murder in the first degree.

The President has issued a proclamation warning the State of Texas not to sell any of the land in the State.

The London Telegraph claims that because the farmers kicked against allowing mules to hunt over their farms the County of Meath, Ireland, was proclaimed.

Alexander Denson, colored, formerly of Shelby, Mo., was arrested at Wichita, Kan., yesterday, for the murder of a colored laborer at Galesburg, Ill., last August.

Charles C. Snyder and Pat O'Brien, prominent politicians, quarreled at Chattanooga, Tenn., and Snyder inserted a big knife in the back of O'Brien's head.

George O. Miller of Stark, Fla., was shot from ambush and killed Monday night. The assassin was a man named John Smith.

IN THIS CASE THE STATEMENT OF THE DEFENDANT WAS THE ONLY EVIDENCE.

There is no American who has ever been accused of a crime, and the only evidence against him is the statement of the defendant.

There is no American who has ever been accused of a crime, and the only evidence against him is the statement of the defendant. The defendant is a man named John, who was a German, and he was found guilty of beating his wife, Sarah, on South Third street, being only suffered to exist in the house, and he was found guilty.

A stranger case still was that of a German couple in the South. The wife, a woman well advanced in years, who desired a divorce from her husband, who was a German, and he was found guilty of beating her.

OUR SACRIFICE REMOVAL ART SALE. Commences To-Day. Silk umbrellas, cut glass, bisque figures, parian marbles, brass tables.

MEMPHIS & JACARD JEWELRY CO., Corner Fourth and Locust.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES. Parnell returned to Ireland yesterday and went to Cork.

Gen. Isaac R. Trimble of Baltimore died there last night of pneumonia.

George A. Smith, a Cincinnati millionaire, died yesterday at the age of 60 years.

Proctor, the first resident of Dakota, 58 years of age, was found frozen to death near Fort Bennett.

In the Tolpeltown murder case at Minneapolis, Minn., yesterday, Timothy Barrett was convicted of murder in the first degree.

The President has issued a proclamation warning the State of Texas not to sell any of the land in the State.

The London Telegraph claims that because the farmers kicked against allowing mules to hunt over their farms the County of Meath, Ireland, was proclaimed.

Alexander Denson, colored, formerly of Shelby, Mo., was arrested at Wichita, Kan., yesterday, for the murder of a colored laborer at Galesburg, Ill., last August.

Charles C. Snyder and Pat O'Brien, prominent politicians, quarreled at Chattanooga, Tenn., and Snyder inserted a big knife in the back of O'Brien's head.

George O. Miller of Stark, Fla., was shot from ambush and killed Monday night. The assassin was a man named John Smith.

Sheriff's Sale

OF I. B. ROSENTHAL & CO.'S

WATERED SILKS

SILK VELVETS and PLUSHES

and WATERED SILKS!

VELVETS, FRAMES, FANCY

59c—420 pieces 16-inch, all colors day in the year $1.00 and $1.25 per yard.

73c—415 pieces 19-inch SILK VELVETS, in all colors was never bought for less than $1.75 per yard.

$1.73—28 pcs 25-inch rich BLACK SILK VELVETS, suitable for entire suits, and big bargain at $3.50 per yard.

$1.98—18 pieces 25-inch superfine VELTS; can at no time be bought for less than $4.50 per yard.

WATERED SILKS.

69c—40 pieces 20-inch WATERED SILKS in best shades; cannot be matched anywhere for less than $1.25.

83c—19-inch colored SILK FLUSHES; they are your regular $2.00 goods.

5c—All our Buckram Frames at 5c.

9c—All our French Frames at 9c.

23c—All our Wool Felt Hats. They are only in best shapes.

25c—Lot of Children's Trimmed Hats; regular $1.50 Hats.

KID GLOVES.

59c—Ladies' 4 buttons, embroidered $1.00.

10c—Ladies' white and colored embroidered Handkerchiefs; worth 25c.

19c—Ladies' All-Wool Cashmere Hose, regular made; worth 80c.

Similar Bargains in Laces, Corsets and Woollen Underwear, all from SHERIFF'S SALE.

In no month in the year do we charge anything for trimming when all goods are bought in the department.

AMUSEMENTS.

Attempted Suicide for Love.

Katie Richter, a servant girl employed at the residence of Ed O'Brien, No. 2033 Madison street, attempted to commit suicide about 7:30 o'clock this morning by taking Paris.

John P. Jordan, for fifteen years a janitor at the Custom house, was arrested yesterday by James Courtney for giving his place.

Christ Meyer, while playing with a revolver at the Casino, was arrested by a police officer for attempting to shoot a man named Meyer.

Two sisters named Faw, living in East Carroll street, broke through the ice in the canal and were arrested by a police officer.

John W. Dunlap was arrested last night at the residence of a man named Dunlap.

Seven Indians from the Indian school at Carlisle, Pa., on route to Indian Territory, were arrested by a police officer.

Frederic B. Hill of 2706 Morgan street died last night from injuries received by falling from a horse.

Religious services are being held each evening this week, except Saturday, at the hall, No. 1205 North Third street.

Miss Rose McCasland entertained a number of her young lady and gentlemen friends last evening at her residence.

Compton Hill Connell, No. 9, Legion of Honor, died last night from injuries received by falling from a horse.

Fire was discovered at 8 o'clock last night at O. M. Dean & Co.'s building, No. 135 North Main street.

At a meeting of Mr. Carmel Branch, No. 425, C. of A., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

OUR SACRIFICE REMOVAL ART SALE. Commences To-Day.

MEMPHIS & JACARD JEWELRY CO., Corner Fourth and Locust.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEVITIES. Parnell returned to Ireland yesterday and went to Cork.

Gen. Isaac R. Trimble of Baltimore died there last night of pneumonia.

George A. Smith, a Cincinnati millionaire, died yesterday at the age of 60 years.

Proctor, the first resident of Dakota, 58 years of age, was found frozen to death near Fort Bennett.

In the Tolpeltown murder case at Minneapolis, Minn., yesterday, Timothy Barrett was convicted of murder in the first degree.

The President has issued a proclamation warning the State of Texas not to sell any of the land in the State.

See That You Don't Miss

THE GREAT

WINTER

SLAUGHTER SALE

AT

FAMOUS

BROADWAY AND MORGAN.

Man's $12.50 Suits cut to $6.25.

Man's $15.00 Suits cut to $7.50.

Man's $20.00 Suits cut to $10.00.

Man's $25.00 Suits cut to $12.50.

Man's $30.00 Suits cut to $15.00.

Man's $35.00 Suits cut to $17.50.

Man's $40.00 Suits cut to $20.00.

Man's $45.00 Suits cut to $22.50.

Man's $50.00 Suits cut to $25.00.

Man's $55.00 Suits cut to $27.50.

Man's $60.00 Suits cut to $30.00.

Man's $65.00 Suits cut to $32.50.

Man's $70.00 Suits cut to $35.00.

Man's $75.00 Suits cut to $37.50.

Man's $80.00 Suits cut to $40.00.

Man's $85.00 Suits cut to $42.50.

Man's $90.00 Suits cut to $45.00.

Man's $95.00 Suits cut to $47.50.

Man's $100.00 Suits cut to $50.00.

Man's $105.00 Suits cut to $52.50.

Man's $110.00 Suits cut to $55.00.

Man's $115.00 Suits cut to $57.50.

Man's $120.00 Suits cut to $60.00.

Man's $125.00 Suits cut to $62.50.

Man's $130.00 Suits cut to $65.00.

Man's $135.00 Suits cut to $67.50.

Man's $140.00 Suits cut to $70.00.

Man's $145.00 Suits cut to $72.50.

Man's $150.00 Suits cut to $75.00.

Man's $155.00 Suits cut to $77.50.

Man's $160.00 Suits cut to $80.00.

Man's $165.00 Suits cut to $82.50.

Man's $170.00 Suits cut to $85.00.

Man's $175.00 Suits cut to $87.50.

Man's $180.00 Suits cut to $90.00.

Man's $185.00 Suits cut to $92.50.

Man's $190.00 Suits cut to $95.00.

Man's $195.00 Suits cut to $97.50.

Man's $200.00 Suits cut to $100.00.

THE ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

VERY EVENING AND SUNDAY MORNING.

SEVEN ISSUES FOR 30 CENTS.
 Delivered by Carriers in all Parts of the CITY AND SUBURBS, and in all the principal CITIES in Missouri and the surrounding States.

BRANCH OFFICES IN THE CITY.

At the following LOCATIONS BRANCH OFFICES have been established, where WANTS ADVERTISEMENTS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS will be received and where the PAPER is kept for sale:

- BENTON ST.—1801.....O. R. Butler
- BROADWAY—2001 N.....O. D. Amour
- BROADWAY—2613.....O. D. Amour
- BROADWAY—2907.....F. Hemm
- BROADWAY—7811.....L. F. Wabbel
- CASBY ST.—1871.....W. F. Froehde
- CHOUTEAU AV.—1200.....W. F. Spraker
- CHOUTEAU AV.—2837.....A. & B. Vogt
- EASTON AV.—2380.....F. C. Pasley
- EAST GRAND AV.—1023.....T. T. Wurb
- ELEVENTH ST.—3701 N.....T. T. Wurb
- FINNEY AV.—3837.....F. E. Piquet
- FRANKLIN AV.—1604.....F. C. Pasley
- FRANKLIN AV.—3340.....J. B. Baseler
- GAMBLE ST.—2631.....A. B. Braun
- LAFAYETTE AV.—1008.....Philip Kaut
- LAFAYETTE AV.—1604.....F. C. Pasley
- MARKET ST.—2031.....C. G. Penney
- MARKET ST.—2846.....S. L. Pharo
- MORGAN ST.—2746.....Johnston & B.
- MORGAN ST.—3701 N.....O. C. Amour
- NINTH ST.—3825 N.....O. C. Amour
- NINTH ST.—3825 N.....O. C. Amour
- MARKET ST.—3222.....W. D. Tenn
- OLIVE ST.—3800.....A. B. Rife
- OLIVE ST.—3800.....A. B. Rife
- PARK AV.—1907.....G. H. Andreas
- ADNEY ST.—1907.....G. H. Andreas
- SAINT AV.—2870.....A. P. Walters
- TAYLOR AV.—1000 N.....G. H. Wagner
- WASHINGTON AV.—2838.....T. S. Glenn

SUBURBAN.

FAST ST. LOUIS—Mo. A. O. F. Krese

BEAVERVILLE, ILL. ....Knecher & Stolberg

TO ADVERTISERS.

Owing to the early departure of the fast-mail train, advertisements for the SUNDAY MORNING POST-DISPATCH must be in the office before 9 o'clock Saturday night to insure insertion.

LODGE NOTICES.

ST. LOUIS COUNCIL, 222, A. L. O. E. will hold a regular meeting this (Wednesday) evening, at Jefferson av. and Walnut st. Visiting brethren invited. C. H. K. 471.

GEO. W. SELL, Sec'y. Commander.

WANT

advertisements in the Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch will reach every reader.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.

Book-keepers.

WANTED—A book-keeper, cashier, correspondent and trainman of twenty years' experience is open for an engagement January 15. Address: B. H. H. 471, 11th and Washington av.

Cooks.

WANTED—A cook and baker wants a situation. Moderate wages; best refs. given. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

Boys.

WANTED—A young, stout boy of 17 would like to get a good place in a store. Trade already established. A good salary. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED—Five salesmen, salary of $100 per month and expenses. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—A young man, 18 years of age, for commission business; must have good recommendations. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—Traveling salesman for a staple line on the coast of Louisiana. No salary. Trade already established. A good salary. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

THE TRADES.

WANTED—Four good house painters; steady work. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—Immediately—An engineer on Rocky Branch sewer, Ashland and Spring av. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

Waiters.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch."

WANTED—A waiter, 45, 417 N. 6th st.

Boys.

WANTED—A boy for nursing and housework. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—A good boy to run errands. Apply to 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—A boy between 16 and 18 years to work in clothing store; one who has had some experience. Apply 471, 11th and Washington av.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Dining-room and house man. 2601 Pine st.

WANTED—Good houseman at Hurst's New Hotel. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—A man to work around the house and in the yard. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—An experienced houseman at Hurst's New Hotel. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—For January 2, seven young ladies to engage with Union Telephone Company and learn telegraphing on their lines, and take situations paying from $100 to $125 per month. Apply to Superintendent, 102 N. 3d st.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALES.

Clerks and Saleswomen.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch."

WANTED—Lady of experience wishes situation as collector of drums; references or bond furnished. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

Housekeepers.

WANTED—A widow would like a situation as housekeeper. 1102 Allen av.

WANTED—A lady 25 years of age, education as a housekeeper, desires a situation as housekeeper. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—A lady of 42 wishes a situation as a day, week or month; good references. 2601 Pine st.

WANTED—A lady with child wants to be housekeeper in respectable woman's family; is kind and has had exp. Mrs. E. S. S. 471, 11th and Washington av.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALES.

General Housework.

WANTED—Sunday Post-Dispatch will secure you the best of help—50¢ per line.

WANTED—Situations to do housework or keep for widower. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—Situations by a woman with child 1 year old to do general housework. Call 1214 Cass av.

WANTED—Situations by two young girls, one to do housework the other as nurse. 1612 N. 43rd st.

WANTED—Situations by two girls; one to do general housework, the other as nurse. 1612 N. 43rd st.

WANTED—Situations by a first-class housekeeper to do house and dining-room work in a private family. 1294 N. 14th st.

WANTED—Young woman, with child 4 years old, desires a situation for general housework; wages no object. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—A German girl wants a good situation for general housework in small private family. Call at 1205 N. 19th st., no postals answer.

STOVE REPAIRS!

For every stove or range made in the United States to be had at A. G. Brainer's, 219 Locust st.

Cooks.

WANTED—Sunday Post-Dispatch will secure you the best of help—50¢ per line.

WANTED—Situations by German woman as cook. Call 1517 Olive st.

WANTED—Situations by an experienced cook. Call 1517 Olive st.

WANTED—A good cook wants a situation in a private family. Call at Franciscan Convent.

WANTED—Situations to cook, wash and iron in private family. Call at Franciscan Convent.

WANTED—Situations by experienced girl as cook in a small family, or to do housework and wash and iron. Call 1517 Olive st.

Laundresses.

WANTED—Sunday Post-Dispatch will secure you the best of help—50¢ per line.

WANTED—Laundry work by the day in private home. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—Situations to do washing and ironing at home. 1020 Morgan st., up-stairs. George Blum.

WANTED—A good strong girl wishes to get a situation in a laundry as starcher; has had some experience. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

Clerks and Saleswomen.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch."

WANTED—A lady who thoroughly understands the millinery business, desires a situation as milliner. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

WANTED—Young lady of pleasant address, good teacher for pleasant business; salary satisfactory. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

Housekeepers.

WANTED—A good German woman with daughter to take care of house. Address or call 610 N. Main st.

If you want work, advertise in the Sunday Post-Dispatch.

General Housework.

WANTED—Your wants in "Sunday Morning Post-Dispatch."

WANTED—Girl for general housework. 601 Hickory.

WANTED—A girl for general housework. 2724 Morgan st., 12th and Franklin av.

WANTED—German girl to do general housework at 2002 Gamble st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply 4105 Finney av.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2724 Morgan st., 12th and Franklin av.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply at 2128 S. Broadway.

WANTED—Girl for general housework in a small family. 2912 N. 21st st.

WANTED—German girl for general housework; no washing. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A girl to do general housework in family of three. 2622 Morgan st. and W. Main st.

WANTED—Girl to do general housework at 1801 Wash. street; German preferred.

WANTED—A good German woman to do general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A German girl to do housework, 16 or 17 years old. Apply 2631 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2724 Morgan st., 12th and Franklin av.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. Apply at 2128 S. Broadway.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

WANTED—A good girl for general housework. 2700 Wash. st.

PERSONAL.

Advertisements under the head of "Personal" are received subject to revision or rejection entirely. The money paid for rejected advertisements will be refunded when the address is given, or by calling at this office with the advertisement. All persons not of a business nature, ten cents a line; nothing less than two lines.

PERSONAL—If you did it would lighten my path. 1 way.

PERSONAL—Letter in P. O. general delivery for you. Marka McFurris.

PERSONAL—Book Emerson Chouteau: Have been away; when can I see you? Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

PERSONAL—Mahal and Grace: "Tuesday, 4th and Pine." "Last Days of Pompeii." Please address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

PERSONAL—Gentlemen of 40, belonging to one of the learned professions, desires acquaintance of a lady with view to matrimony. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

PERSONAL—Acquaintance of nice, respectable widow lady desired by gentleman, stranger of some means and agreeable manners; object, social amusement. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

PERSONAL—"Kittie" Fiesan send address to last Thursday; will explain what could not be said last Thursday; you go to K. O. Address: 471, 11th and Washington av.

PERSONAL SUNDRIES.

UNFORTUNATES look in the Sunday Post-Dispatch for those who can relieve them.

YOU need a suit of clothes and see the sign in the window of the clothing store.

NOTICE TO HOUSEKEEPERS—Parties desiring rates and conditions of service done by day or week for cash would do well to call on or address: G. H. H. 471, 11th and Washington av.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

DR. J. JOCELYN of Cotton Dental Association, who introduced the use of rubber teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth, gives his personal attention to the extraction of teeth.

SAFETY RAZORS—Good ones. They are worth their weight in gold. You can shave close and without irritation. Call at 471, 11th and Washington av.

1,000 BUSINESS CARDS for St. L. H. Croe & Co., printers, 1100 N. 2nd st.

